Artisan Emerging Markets Local Opportunities Fund

Investment Objective, Investment Policies and Investment Strategy

Investment Objective:

The investment objective of the Fund is to provide total return through a combination of current income and long-term capital appreciation. There is no assurance that the investment objective of the Fund will actually be achieved.

Investment Policies:

Under normal circumstances, the Fund invests no less than 80% of its Net Asset Value in debt instruments denominated in currencies of emerging market countries, debt instruments issued by emerging market entities or emerging market sovereign nations and/or derivative instruments (as detailed below) denominated in or based on the currencies, interest rates, or issues of emerging market countries. These securities include instruments issued or guaranteed by companies, financial institutions and government entities and/or their agencies domiciled in or with exposure to emerging market countries. An “emerging market country” for the purpose of the foregoing 80% limit is a country that is any country other than Canada, Luxembourg, the US and the countries comprising the MSCI EAFE Index (currently, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Hong Kong, Ireland, Israel, Italy, Japan, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Portugal, Singapore, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and the United Kingdom). The extent of the Fund’s investment in Russia is not expected to exceed 20% of its Net Asset Value. The Investment Manager has flexibility to pursue the investment policy broadly across industries, although it is anticipated that no more than 25% of its Net Asset Value will be invested in the securities of issuers from the same particular industry. The Fund may have significant investment e.g. greater than 20% in a particular country.

Unless otherwise specified herein, for the purposes of determining the non-regulatory investment percentages permitted by the investment policies, the percentages of the Net Asset Value of the Fund are determined using the value of the relevant securities at the time of a particular purchase.

The Fund may invest in debt instruments of all types listed, traded or dealt on Regulated Markets, including, without limitation, sovereign issues, bonds (including covered and Convertible Debt Securities - which, for the avoidance of doubt, do not include contingent convertible bonds), commercial paper, notes (including Credit Linked Notes), and other fixed-, variable- and floating-rate securities that are either secured or unsecured, and, either senior or subordinated. It is expected that the Fund will generally not invest more than 20% of its Net Asset Value in corporate bonds and such percentage reference is not applied as a strict limitation in the portfolio construction or allocation process. The Fund will invest no more than 10% in Credit Linked Notes. The Fund may invest up to 10% of its assets in participation notes which provide access to investments in an emerging market country and the issuers thereof may be domiciled in an emerging market country, Europe or the US. Such notes may be listed or, subject to the regulatory limits specified under the UCITS Regulations, unlisted and will be issued typically by special purpose vehicles or major investment banks.

The Fund may invest, without limitation, in debt instruments of any credit rating, including instruments that are rated below investment grade commonly known as “junk bonds” (below BBB- by Standard & Poor’s Rating Service or Fitch, Inc. or below Baa3 by Moody’s Investors Service, Inc.), or comparably rated by another nationally recognized statistical rating organization, or unrated but determined by the Investment Manager to be of comparable quality. The Fund may invest up to 10% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund in debt instruments that are non-performing at the time of purchase and meet the requirements of the investment policy. The Fund may invest in debt securities of any maturity and the Fund’s investments are not subject to any restrictions with respect to duration. The Fund may also invest in debt securities that include bonds and notes on which the interest is payable in the form of additional stocks, bonds or notes of the same kind (commonly known as payment-in-kind or “PIK” securities). The Fund may invest in loans, assignments or participation interests which qualify as transferable securities or money market instruments. Such instruments may be securitised or unsecuritised and will not in accordance with the regulatory limits specified under the UCITS Regulations, exceed 10% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund.

The Fund expects to achieve certain exposures primarily through derivative transactions. These derivatives include forward foreign currency exchange contracts; futures on securities, indices, currencies, commodities, swaps and other investments; options; swaps, including interest rate swaps, cross-currency swaps, total return swaps and credit default swaps; rights; and warrants (together, “FDI”), which may have the effect of creating investment leverage. The Fund may use derivatives to seek to enhance total return, to hedge against fluctuations in securities prices, interest rates or currency exchange rates, to change the effective duration of its portfolio, to manage certain investment risks, for investment purposes to gain certain types of exposures and/or as a substitute for the purchase or sale of securities, currencies or commodities. Investments in warrants are not expected to be greater than 10% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund.

The Fund may also utilize derivatives to take short positions in underlying assets and non-USD currencies to hedge certain risk factors. The Fund intends to use all or a portion of the proceeds from its short positions to take additional long positions or otherwise use in a manner consistent with its investment policies. It is intended that the Fund will be managed to operate in normal circumstances with full flexibility from the perspective of long/short exposure. The maximum value of the long positions held by the Fund will be 100% of the Net Asset Value and maximum of the absolute value of the short positions will be 100% of the Net Asset Value. Short exposure will only be taken through the use of FDIs.

The Fund may purchase or sell securities on a forward commitment basis, whereby the transaction is for a fixed price at a future date beyond the typical settlement timeframe, and may also, for the purposes of efficient portfolio management only, engage in repurchase agreements and reverse repurchase agreements up to 10% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund.

The Fund will have significant exposure to non-USD currencies through investments in the instruments outlined herein. The Investment Manager considers opportunities and risks for the Fund in holding currency exposure. When the Investment Manager views a currency positively, and as potentially return generative, it does not seek to hedge against the risk. When the Investment Manager views a currency negatively, the Investment Manager may seek to hedge the risk through the relevant FDIs listed above.

The Fund expects to hold US Treasury and government agency securities (and derivatives thereon), and bonds structured to receive the interest only or principal only portions of the underlying payment obligations, to use as collateral for its derivatives positions and to help manage duration.

The Fund may also invest in equity securities consistent with the Fund’s investment objective and policies. Such investment is expected in normal market conditions to be no more than 10% but may be higher.

In addition to instruments issued by emerging market issuers, the Fund may also invest in securities and other instruments of US and other non-emerging market issuers, and securities denominated in currencies other than emerging market currency.

The Fund may invest up to a maximum of 10% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund in open ended collective investment schemes, including European domiciled exchange traded funds and other Funds of the Company where such an investment is consistent with achieving the investment objective and policies of the Fund. This 10% maximum will be determined based on the latest market value of the relevant collective investment schemes.

The Fund may hold ancillary liquid assets (such as cash and short-term investments (including short term deposits and other cash equivalent investments including, but not limited to, US treasury bills, investment grade bonds, cash deposits, commercial paper, short term money market deposits and certificates of deposit)), subject to the limits set out in Appendix III of the Prospectus.

The Fund is actively managed and run on an entirely discretionary basis. The Fund references J.P. Morgan Government Bond Index: Emerging Markets (JP Morgan GBI-EM Global Diversified Composite Index) (the “Index”) but does not intend to track the Index and Fund is unconstrained in relation to its portfolio and the constituents and jurisdictions of the Index.

Investment Strategy:

The Investment Manager has a fundamental investment process with an ongoing focus on identifying attractive investment opportunities in emerging markets. This multi-stage process includes both top-down and bottom-up decision making inputs to identify multiple sources of value.

The first stage is a top-down strategy focusing on both short-term and longer term macroeconomic and political considerations. Initially, the investment team seeks to identify emerging market countries that are undergoing or poised for strong economic growth or structural changes, such as political, legislative and/or economic reforms. This involves an assessment of macroeconomic and political research and analysis on individual countries by the Investment Manager to better understand the local and/or regional political system and environment, fiscal and monetary policy, and trade policy, among other factors. Countries and currencies which have the potential to outperform others within the market are identified and the Investment Manager seeks to select and adjust investments for the Fund to construct a differentiated portfolio of securities, derivatives and other instruments that offer long and short exposures to emerging markets. The second stage is a bottom-up strategy examining the profiles of individual instruments and involves, as applicable, credit analyses of issuers, focusing on cash generation, cash flow predictability and event risk analysis, as well as traditional credit statistics, in order to determine the financial strength of issuers, current valuations and the interest rate sensitivity of investments, among other factors. For non-credit investments such as equities and collective investment schemes, the Investment Manager utilizes the same investment process and seeks to complement the credit analyses and identify value in the relevant business based on earnings, risk analyses and the historical drivers of return for such equities, and seeks to identify collective investment schemes with appropriate investment policies which are consistent with the Fund and managed by experienced teams.

The corporate credit selection process and decision making also involves sector research and valuation, completed by the investment team. Sectors include, but are not limited to, financials, consumers, industrials, and business services. For each sector the team formulate an investment view and project expected returns which are impacted by the investment team’s macroeconomic outlook and based on internal analysis of, among other things, credit quality and yields and the perceived values of countries’ currencies and interest rates. Securities are then selected by screening the universe of eligible securities to formulate a list of buy opportunities and selecting the individual securities that exhibit the characteristics which the Investment Manager considers attractive.

The portfolio construction process measures and manages the Fund’s overall risk profile on an ongoing basis in an effort to seek to ensure that the Fund’s investment objective is achieved. As part of this process, portfolio construction decisions are taken in accordance with applicable investment objectives and constraints, and are assessed to ensure that the final portfolio composition and positioning reflects the Investment Manager’s prevailing market views and the Fund’s risk appetite.

Please refer to the section of the Prospectus entitled “Sustainability Related Disclosures” for information on the consideration of financially material environmental, social and governance factors by the Investment Manager and the integration of sustainability risks and impact thereof.

SFDR:

The Fund is classified under Article 8 of the SFDR. The Fund promotes the following environmental and social characteristics:

- the environmental characteristic of climate change mitigation by avoiding issuers which derive a certain percentage of revenue from the mining and/or extraction of thermal coal.

- the social characteristic of human health and wellbeing through the exclusion of investments from bottom-ranked countries based on the Investment Manager's proprietary scoring system and issuers which derive a certain percentage of revenue from the manufacturing and/or production of tobacco or any revenue from the manufacturing and/or production of controversial weapons.

Further information about the environmental and social characteristics promoted by the Fund is available in the SFDR Annex appended to this Supplement.

The Investment Manager applies exclusionary screening methodology to the Fund in order to measure and evaluate the contribution of the securities to the characteristics promoted. With respect to investment in debt securities, utilising the exclusionary screen, the Fund shall avoid investing in and not knowingly include any company whose business activity involves the following in its investments:

- manufacturing and/or production of tobacco, where the company derives 10% or more revenue from such business activity;
- mining and/or extraction of thermal coal, where the company derives 10% or more revenue from such business activity; and
- manufacturing and/or production of controversial weapons i.e. cluster bombs, landmines, depleted uranium, chemical and biological weapons, blinding laser weapons, non-detectable fragments and incendiary weapons (white phosphorus).

In addition, the Fund shall avoid investing in sovereign issuers which are in the bottom-ranked countries, based on the Investment Manager's in-house proprietary scoring system on a scale from 0-5 (worst to best). The Investment Manager considers a diverse range of quantitative and qualitative environmental ("E"), social ("S") and governance ("G") sustainability indicators which the Investment Manager has identified as being of particular relevance in order to assess the jurisdiction in question. The Investment Manager's proprietary scoring system is applied to each issuer in the Fund's portfolio.

The Investment Manager also promotes good governance among sovereigns and ensures that any companies in which investments are made follow good governance practices. The Investment Manager will not make any new investments in countries where there is evidence of significant violations (being significant failures by the government to ensure that an individual or a group's social rights are protected).

Investments that are held by the Fund which as a result of the application of the ESG criteria above become restricted after they are acquired for the Fund, will be sold. Such sales will take place over a time period to be determined by the Investment Manager, taking into account the best interests of the Shareholders. The Investment Manager uses third-party data and in some cases data on specific issuers, ESG themes or the exclusions noted above may not be available and/or may be estimated by the Investment Manager using internal methodologies or reasonable estimates. The methodologies used by different data providers may also vary and may result in different scores.

Please refer to the section of the Prospectus headed "Sustainability Related Disclosures" for further information in respect of the integration of sustainability risks in relation to the Fund.

Profile of a Typical Investor

A typical investor in the Fund is an institutional or professional investor, being a corporate, pension fund, insurance company, public sector body such as a governmental, supranational agency or local authority, bank, other investment firm or any other intermediary. This may also include high net worth individuals and private wealth management advisers and firms.

Investment in FDIs - Direct Investment/Efficient Portfolio Management

The Manager may, on behalf of the Fund and subject to the conditions and within the limits laid down by the Central Bank, employ techniques and instruments relating to transferable securities, including investment in FDIs. Such techniques and instruments may be used for direct investment purposes, efficient portfolio management purposes, and/or to provide protection against exchange rate risk. All FDIs will take into account the risk profile of the Fund and it is not intended that investment in FDIs will increase the level of risk in the Fund.

A Risk Management Process ("RMP") which enables the Manager to accurately measure, monitor and manage the risks associated with FDIs has been prepared and submitted to the Central Bank in accordance with the Central Bank's requirements on the use of FDIs. Only FDIs provided for in the RMP will be utilised, which are FDI specified in the section entitled "Investment Policies" above. Securities Financing Transactions and total return swaps may be entered into in respect of securities held by the Fund or securities that are consistent with the investment objective of the Fund.

The Manager will use the relative VaR model whereby the VaR shall not exceed twice the VaR on a comparable benchmark, being the Index. The Fund will be leveraged as a result of its use of FDI and leverage is calculated using a sum of the gross notionals approach.

The level of leverage (meaning increases to the Fund's exposure achieved by any method, and calculated based on the sum of the gross notionals of the derivatives used, in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank) is expected to be within the range of 50% to 200% but there may be periods when the leverage will be materially higher. It is also possible that leverage could increase in certain market conditions or where the Manager believes that the use of additional derivatives is appropriate to achieve the investment objectives of the Fund. However, in such circumstances, the level of leverage is not expected to exceed 500% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund.

The Company will, on request, provide supplemental information to Shareholders relating to the risk management methods employed, including the quantitative limits that are applied and any recent developments in the risk and yield characteristic of the main categories of investments.

Investment Restrictions

Investors must note that the Company and the Fund adhere to the restrictions and requirements set out under the UCITS Regulations, as may be amended from time to time. These are set out under the heading "Introduction – Investment and Borrowing Restrictions" and at Appendix III in the Prospectus. With respect to the Fund, paragraphs 3.1 to 3.3 of Appendix III shall be disapplied and the following investment restriction shall apply in their place:

"Investments made by the Fund in units of a UCITS or other CIS may not exceed, in aggregate, 10% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund, and any CIS in which the Fund invests may not itself invest more than 10% of its Net Asset Value in other CIS."

Cross Investing

Subject to the requirements of the Central Bank, the Fund may invest in the other Funds of the Company.

The Investment Manager may not charge investment management fees in respect of that proportion of the assets of the Fund which are invested in other Funds of the Company. In addition, no preliminary charge, redemption charge or conversion charge may be charged on the cross-investing Fund's Investment. Investment will not be made by the Fund in a Fund which itself cross-invests in another Fund within the Company.

Borrowings

In accordance with the general provisions set out in the Prospectus under the heading "Introduction – Investment and Borrowing Restrictions" borrowings on behalf of the Fund may only be made on a temporary basis and the aggregate amount of such borrowings may not exceed 10% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund. The Directors are responsible for setting the borrowing limits of the Fund and, subject to these limits; the Investment Manager will implement the borrowing operations and facilities (if any) on a day-to-day basis. The Fund may borrow to enhance total return, fund redemptions, post collateral for hedges, or to purchase investments prior to settlement of pending sale transactions. The Fund may charge its assets as security for such borrowings.

Risk Factors

Investors should read and consider the section of the Prospectus entitled "Risk Factors" before investing in the Fund.

These fees will be accrued daily based on the Net Asset Value of the previous day attributable to each class and will be paid monthly in arrears. The Investment Manager will also be entitled to be reimbursed by the Fund for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses. The Investment Manager may from time to time, at its sole discretion and out of its own resources, decide to rebate intermediaries and/or Shareholders part or all of its investment management fee. The Annual Expenses will be accrued daily, based on the Net Asset Value of the previous day attributable to the Fund or relevant class and will be paid monthly in arrears. The Investment Manager may, on prior notice to Shareholders (which notice shall be a minimum of two weeks) and with an update to this Supplement, cease to make such reimbursement as outlined above. "Annual Expenses" shall not, however, include any taxation (including stamp duty) to which the Company may be liable, commissions, brokerage fees and other expenses incurred with respect to the Investments and any extraordinary or exceptional costs and expenses as may arise from time to time such as material litigation in relation to the Company or the Fund. As noted earlier and for the avoidance of doubt, the "Annual Expenses" do not include the fees and expenses of the Investment Manager. The foregoing fees, costs and expenses, where arising, will be borne by the Company or the Fund, as applicable.

The fees and expenses relating to the establishment of the Fund (in total not exceeding US$50,000) will be borne by the Fund and will be amortised over the first five financial years of the Fund. Any further new funds will bear their own direct establishment costs and such costs will be amortised over the first five financial years after their launch or such other period as the Directors may determine. It is expected that such accounting treatment will not be material to the financial statements of the Fund. If the effect of this accounting treatment becomes material in the future the Directors will reconsider this policy.

Other Fees and Expenses

The fees and operational expenses referable to the Fund will be charged to the Fund (and class or classes thereof, if appropriate) in respect of which they were incurred or, where an expense is not considered by the Directors to be attributable to any one Fund, the expense will normally be allocated to each fund of the Company (including the Fund) pro rata to the Net Asset Value of the funds. Expenses of the Company which are directly attributable to a specific class or classes of Shares are charged to the account of such Shares. In the case of any fees or expenses of a regular or recurring nature, such as audit fees, the Directors may calculate such fees and expenses on an estimated figure for yearly or other periods in advance and accrue the same in equal proportions over any period.

This section should be read in conjunction with the section entitled "Fees and Expenses" in the Prospectus.
